DOPL Customer Electrical Program Policy and Procedural Development and Concerns Worksheet

This worksheet is to be used by DOPL customers to suggest changes to existing policy and procedures or ideas to create or absolve existing policies and procedures. You do not have to answer all questions. Provide the information you can and submit it to...

warren.wing@dbs.idaho.gov

Situation: (What is the issue and what concerns is it creating? What problem exists? What issues are the existing policy and procedure attempting to solve, but are not solving?)

Mission: (What will it look like when the issue is solved?)

Execution: (How are we going to do things different? What is the new policy/procedure that you would like to see implemented? How do we solve identified issues?)

Administration and Logistics: (Who will be responsible for implementing these changes? Identify specific tasks that need to be accomplished. Assign individuals to complete tasks identified. Set specific dates to complete tasks. Set follow up meetings if necessary.)

Supervision: (Identify who will be responsible for the supervision of identified tasks)
