◆ Open Forum

City/County Concerns – There were no city or county concerns to address under open forum.

Merging of DBS and DOPL – Independent Certified Electrical Inspector Jeff Fitzloff questioned, and Ron Whitney replied, with the merger of DBS into the Division of Occupational and Professional Licenses (DOPL) and moving to the State Chinden Campus in Boise, the Electrical Board’s overhead will be reduced. Operations will continue as usual with little to no change.

Rewrite Statute and Rules – Mr. Fitzloff is concerned with the rewriting of the statute and rules; specifically, reducing regulations to obtain an electrical license in the State of Idaho.

Idaho NEC Collaborative Update – Kelly Lamp, National Electrical Contractors Association (NEC), presented a report by the Idaho National Electrical Code (NEC) Collaborative for possible adoption of the 2020 NEC in the State of Idaho. Included in the report were minutes from the July 14, 2021, April 21, 2021, January 20, 2021 Collaborative meetings; tally sheets to amend, remove or leave as it stands on all subsections in IDAPA 24.39.10, Subsection F Use of the National Electrical Code; and revised language.

The Arc-Fault Circuit Interrupter (AFCI) was fairly controversial, and external disconnects were debated. Submersible pumps were not discussed as they were legislatively added into rule years ago. Specialty contractors in the solar industry added energy storage, photovoltaic systems, and DC battery storage systems.

In item “U. ii” Article 690.12 Rapid Shut Down, Board Member Casey Wilson inquired, and Mr. Lamp acknowledged, the Collaborative understood the concept of rapid shut down for off grid systems, and what it would entail if allowed. Board Member Wilson asked additional verbiage to be added as he is concerned the way it reads it could be a potential hazard if an individual disconnected from the utility, installed an off-grid system, and was not required to have rapid shut down.

With regard to item “R” Compliance with Article 210.12 Arc-Fault Circuit-Interrupter Protection, Mike Stone, National Electrical Manufacturers Association, stated there was considerable sentiment during the Collaborative meetings to move forward with the extension of AFCI’s in code.

For approval of the proposed rule changes and adoption of the 2020 NEC at the 2022 legislature, Deputy Attorney General Spencer Holm implied the negotiated rulemaking process could possibly be met through a special meeting of the Board.

In response to Jeff Fitzloff’s question, if following the code adopted by the State of Idaho, independent inspectors and contractors should not be liable for the installation of AFCIs.

Mr. Lamp was asked to work with DOPL staff to arrange the proposed changes into legislative format and bring to a special meeting for the Board to vote whether the proposal should be presented at the 2022 legislative session.

ACTION: A special meeting of the Board will be scheduled to review proposed changes to the electrical rules for possible adoption of the 2020 NEC.

◆ Milking Equipment Considered Industrial Machinery

Idaho Code § 54-1016 (5) Exemptions states, "Approval and certification requirements of product and equipment as set forth in this chapter and in the adopted edition of the national electrical code do not apply to industrial machinery unless the board has made a determination that such product, machine or classes of products and machines present an undue hazard to life and property."

Electrical Program Manager Wing explained a company purchased computer numerical control (CNC) equipment from another country, which did not have the standard of approval by Underwriters Laboratories. The company went to the legislature where legislation passed allowing exemptions on industrial machinery. The definition of "industrial machinery" is already in the National Electrical Code, Article 670, which the Electrical Program Manager read. The Board was asked to determine if "Milking Equipment", or similar products, machine or classes of products and machines, present an undue hazard to life and property.

The topic will be brought to the October 2021 Board meeting as an action item.

ACTION: The topic Milking Equipment Considered Industrial Machinery to be addressed as an action item at the October 27, 2021 Electrical Board meeting.

◆ Program Manager Report

Zero-Based Regulations – The Board was provided a list of upcoming public hearings DOPL will host throughout the State of Idaho. The hearings will be an opportunity to address the reduction of barriers governing the construction trades, as well as gather input on the current electrical, building, energy, HVAC and plumbing laws and rules.

Expired Permits – The Division has been sending Notice of Violations to contractors that have not received final inspections.

IAEI Meeting – The International Association of Electrical Inspectors (IAEI) Northwestern and Southwestern Sections are holding a joint meeting. August 29, 2021 through September 2, 2021, in Sparks, Nevada.

NASCLA Exam – The Division is exploring an accredited examination program by the National Association of State Contractors Licensing Agencies (NASCLA) designed to reduce redundant licensing requirements and assist contractors who need to be licensed in multiple jurisdictions. Participating states will provide contractor mobility by allowing electricians the opportunity to cross state borders without having to take multiple electrical examinations.

Compliance Report – Kelly Lamp, NECA, questioned the large number of contractors that have been issued warnings on violations for “gross incompetence/willful violation of rules and statutes”. The definition of “Gross Violation” in IDAPA rule states, “In the case of continued, repeated or gross violation of Title 54, Chapter 10, Idaho Code, or these rules, a license revocation shall be initiated for licensees under this chapter and non-licensees shall be subject to prosecution by the appropriate jurisdiction under Idaho law.” Electrical Program Manager Wing explained contractors with 100 or more expired permits, due to never requesting/receiving a final inspection, are being issued this violation to deterrent contractors from continuing down this route.

◆ Administration Report

DOPL – Administration continues to work on the employee organizational chart, as well as work with the State of Idaho Human Resources to protect employee rights in the transition. Tenant improvements have begun in Building 4, which will house DOPL. It is now estimated the move to the Chinden Campus will be March or April 2022. There are two inspector openings: one in Twin Falls and one in Idaho Falls. The positions have been extremely hard to fill as the starting wage is not comparable to what is paid by the industry.

Administrative Rules – The Administrative Rules have been posted on the Administrative Rules website, and the link will be updated on the Division’s website in the near future.

Fiscal Report – The Electrical Board Fund, Fiscal Year 2021 Financial Statement as of 05/31/2021, was addressed.

◆ Adjournment

With no additional questions or comments, Chairman Scott asked for a motion to adjourn.

MOTION: Jim Marchetti made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Rick Stark seconded. All in favor, motion carried.

The meeting adjourned at 1:45 p.m. (MDT)
